

175.10 Surplus moneys.

Moneys declared by the authority to be surplus moneys which are not required to service bonds and notes, to pay administrative expenses of the authority or to accumulate necessary operating or loss reserves, shall be used by the authority to provide loans, grants, subsidies, and other services or assistance to beginning farmers or agricultural producers through any of the programs authorized in this chapter.

[C81, §175.10]

87 Acts, ch 52, §4